

PhD Preliminary Examination Conditional Pass Form PE Department

Student has failed to meet the pass standard for one subject area of the PhD preliminary examination. This form is initiated by the graduate program coordinator to determine the nature of the make-up work.

| 0.1   | - Color ID                  |
|---|-----------------------------|
| Student Name  | Student ID                  |
| Academic Advisor  | Enrollment Semester         |
|   | PhD Preliminary Examination |
| Research Advisor  | First Attempt               |
|   | Second Attempt              |
| rea Subject to Conditional Pass                                       |                             |
|   |                             |
|   |                             |
| Γο be completed by corresponding faculty member Nature of the make-up | o work                      |
|   |                             |
|   |                             |
|   |                             |
|   |                             |
|   |                             |
|   |                             |
| Student Signature   | Date                        |
|   |                             |
| The Graduate Program Coordinator Signature                            | Date                        |
|   |                             |
| Corresponding Faculty Signature                                       |                             |
|   |                             |
| Department Chair Signature  |                             |
| Department Chair Signature  | Date                        |